

ANGELS for CHRIST

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMER 2009

Rachel's Prayer

Reaching This Generation:

In Genesis 30:1, Rachel prayed, "Give me children or else I die." We must fervently pray for today's generation of children, who are lost without hope, unless we reach them for Jesus Christ. Statistically, we know that most of the eminent Christian ministers were converted in their youth. Pray that while they are young their hearts may be committed to our Savior. Remember, young Rachel who was murdered at Columbine High School when she refused to deny God. Pray for radical conversions.

Spurgeon said, "He is no fool who can talk to children."

Super Nova - Little Lawrence: Heavens Gain, Earth's Loss!

He was every bit as much of a soldier as a major in the army. Cancer was his constant enemy, but he wore the badge of Jesus with great dignity and courage. His greatest desire was to be a preacher. Year after year, as the disease and cancer treatments took their toll on his young body, he still came to our outreaches. We were blessed by knowing him...even though it was too short a time. The glory of God is so great upon some of these little ones. It seems they are not destined to be left in this ever increasing evil world. But while here, they are like super nova stars, that shine more exceedingly bright than the other stars in the galaxy, but fade away much too quickly.

We know that the angels took him to Jesus the moment he closed his eyes; it was goodnight to earth and good morning heaven. All of us who knew him say, "Goodnight Little Lawrence, thanks for the blessing of being in your presence for a while." After 14 years of ministering to children, we've sadly seen too many who went on to heaven. Some were murdered, abused in this life, or terribly sick, but they were precious and we will never forget them. Isaiah 57:1, "...the righteous is taken away from the evil to come."

The Spanish Church: Spark's of Revival!

Two teenage boys came to visit our Spanish church recently. As they heard the gospel, tears formed in their eyes. We spoke of the love of Christ, repentance, salvation and then gave an invitation to receive Him. With no prompting, just the drawing of the Holy Spirit, they came forward to commit their lives to the Master. Perhaps, a young Samuel, a young Paul...only God knows!

What a joy to see the seriousness, and commitment from those who find hope and purpose with their new life in Christ. Many new converts are experiencing a deeper walk with the Lord. It is a busy time for us of water baptisms, baby dedications, teaching of God's word and doing outreaches.

Gone Fishing!

Are you a fisher of men? That's what Jesus asked of us, to be fisher's of men. The enemy has cast a big net to capture the hearts of today's generation of kids through his lies and deception. "But, greater is He who is in us..."

Faithful Partners:

Thanks, for your prayers and financial support during these difficult economic times. We fervently pray over every gift received at Angels for Christ. Your help and heart for this ministry is so appreciated.

IN HIS SERVICE, BECAUSE HE LIVES!
